Brigadier General G. S. Eckhardt
Headquarters
35th Artillery Brigade (Air Defense)
Fort George G. Meade, Maryland

Dear George:

Thank you for your letter of 9 April about [redacted]
I appreciated your thoughtfulness in writing to me about him.

STAT

Our personnel people advise me that [redacted] could be employed as a civilian and receive both his military retired pay and a civilian salary only if he were retired for combat disability. If he should be retired for other disability incurred in line of duty, he could be employed as a civilian and receive combined civilian and retired pay up to $10,000 or, if the civilian salary were higher than this figure, he would receive the civilian salary in full.

STAT
If [redacted] is retiring on length of service alone, his employment as a civilian would require an exception both to dual employment and dual compensation statutes. The Agency does have the authority to make a limited number of such appointments. The officers employed under this authority must elect to receive either military pay or civilian salaries; they may not receive both.

STAT
As indicated above, there is little chance of our being able to offer [redacted] employment on the terms suggested in your letter. However, if he would nonetheless be interested in exploring the possibilities, we shall be glad to hear from him.

Faithfully yours,
Sincerely,

Army review(s)
completed.

Lieutenant General Marshall S. Carter
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General,

When I received your thoughtful note of 6 April, it occurred to me you might be interested in a piece of incidental intelligence your agents may not have revealed to you.

of years ago. He speaks French, Spanish, and even English fluently.

? → If you have a position he could fill while still drawing his retired pay, he might be interested.

Hope to see you soon.

Sincerely,
